FATAL ACCIDENT

AT FORT SASKATCHEWAN

Mr. Jacob Kelly Instantly Killed
Yesterday Afternoon by the Breaking of a Windlass

Bulletin Special Despatch.

Fort Saskatchewan, November 15.—One of the saddest and most distressing fatalities that has yet occurred at Fort Saskatchewan happened yesterday afternoon, resulting in the almost instantaneous death of Mr. Jacob Kelly, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens in this vicinity.

As the ice in the river is now running rather thick, and as the river is freezing about the banks, it was decided to haul the ferry out for the winter. Mr. Kelly's sons had the contract for doing this, and were making good progress, winning the ferry up the grade leading by means of a horse power windlass, when, without the warning of even a creak the arm broke, the weight of the ferry causing the windlass to rapidly unwind. The broken off portion was hurled with great force against the right side of Mr. Kelly's head. The unfortunate gentleman who was merely a spectator, to his sons' operations, was rendered unconscious, and succumbed to the shock in a few minutes. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of the whole community.

CRISIS IN FRANCE

ADMINISTRATION MAY FALL

The head of the War Office has sent in His resignation. Other Ministers
May resign

Paris, November 15.—The change in the ministry is a culmination of fierce assaults on the administration of the war office. General Andre decided to resign this morning. He immediately despatched a letter to President Combes stating that the attacks on the war office were merely a device of the enemies of the Government to undermine the republic. The belief of the administration is expected. It is reported that ministers of Marine, Finance and Public Works will also resign.

A NEW SETTLER'S EXPERIENCE

Threshing being nearly over and fall ploughing well forward, the fine weather we have been enjoying for so long, and which has been so favorable for all kinds of farm work, makes one inclined to compare the weather conditions of the summer just past with those of a year ago. I am, my brother made the first journey after entering on our homestead, which are situated about 30 miles north-east of Edmonton in August 1903, just before one of the wet times, the recollections of which are many and varied. For the benefit of those not used to travelling over muddy roads, a few remarks concerning the journey may not be amiss. After spending the first night from town at Horse Hills, behold us in our wagon with two teams of horses, a fourteen inch Northern Queen breaking plow, the virtues of which particular kind will be allowed by all who have had the pleasure of turning prairie sod with one, and all the necessary equipment for camping and doing settlement duties. Another day's journey was accomplished, though at a slow rate of speed, owing to the roughness of the roads, and the numerous mud holes to be got through. Then having found a suitable camping place, and a large comfortable night we continued our journey, hoping to reach our homesteads without mishap. But we were doomed to spend another night on the road, as after passing through numerous creeks and mud holes, which seemed had enough we came to a large slough, through which the trail ran, completely flooded, and a creek, between five and six feet deep running through the middle of it, the bridge over which had been washed away. After taking the team and wading about 150 yards to the bank of the creek we found that the scattered planks would have to be gathered up and the bridge would have to be rebuilt before a heavy load could pass over. Before we had made up our minds as to what we should do two teams came up behind our own, and the teamsters, after looking at the situation, came wading over to find out how the passage could be made. The newcomers proved to be two young Scotchmen, who, with characteristic energy and cheerfulness, helped with a will until we had the bridge built, and the teams safely over, a state of affairs. However, which had taken some time to accomplish with a lot of splashing. After another mile or so of travelling, a camping place for the night had to be selected, but by this time the rain began to descend, and when we were fairly settled for the night, crowds of mosquitoes seemed anxious to share the shelter of our tent, to our great annoyance and discomfort. Next morning we reached our destination, and our homesteads, as well as the surrounding country, presented a very dreary appearance. The rain continued for about two days longer, most of which time we spent in our tent; and when the weather cleared began breaking in earnest.

The summer just passed has been quite different. The sun shone regularly from behind the hills, beyond the river; and the journey to Edmonton when necessary was taken in comfort over dry roads, with the fresh air from spruce and jack-pine hills and breezy prairie uplands blowing; just sufficiently to keep mosquitoes and black flies at a respectful distance. The creeks, which a year ago had assumed the proportions of rivers, were now murmuring brooks, meandering lazily over sparkling sand, through meadow and under willow bush; and every prospect tended to make us glad that we had our stake in the great Dominion, of which we are so justly proud.

ALBERTA ELECTION

The election returns for Alberta generally known as the MacLeod district give Herron, Conservative, the election by 73 majority at 13 polls. This was counted a safe Liberal seat judged by the majorities given in the same localities at the 1930 election. But the large increase of population since that time has changed the vote there as elsewhere throughout the Territories, and this the Liberal candidate and his friends did not count on and so did not exert themselves as they should. There were besides a number of regional jealousies which naturally counsel against the Government candidate.

Mr. Herron the Conservative candidate is an old timer, an ex-politician and rancher. Residing at Pincher Creek he was removed from the natural rivalry between Lethbridge and MacLeod, and had the advantage of a strong vote in his own locality on local and personal grounds. He does not profess to be a platform star, or an especially expert hand man, but he is a worker and from the time of his nomination he kept going, getting acquainted everywhere and putting in the best day he could against the Government, to which he objects on every imaginable ground. The regulations regarding minors being framed with regard to the general nature of the Territories, are not suitable or satisfactorily workable in many respects in the mountains. The adverse vote in the mountain towns of Frank, Blairmore and Colesman was no doubt largely due to this fact. Pincher Creek district which includes Cowley, Livingstone and Mountain Mill, polled heavy majorities for their local man. Lethbridge also voted heavily against Mackenzie, no doubt largely because of rivalry against MacLeod who Mackenzie routed. MacLeod, bitterly and always Conservative, gave a majority of 10 for Herron against their local man. The Mormon settlements generally gave small majorities to Mackenzie and as well the new settlements along the Calgary & Edmonton line. But although he had majorities at five more polls than his opponent his majorities averaged so much smaller that he was not in the race, by a substantial majority; when by the evidence of the returns he should have won. And would have but for over confidence in the returns of the previous election and possibly underestimating his opponent. Lethbridge which gave Herron a majority of 56 in this election gave as many the other way in 1930; and Pincher Creek which gave Herron 81 majority was about a tie. Blairmore, Frank and Colesman where Herron had 89 majority did not exist then. Many other places which gave a large vote have also since come into existence. Mackenzie, the defeated candidate, was a member of the law firm of Haultain & Mackenzie, the senior partner being the premier of the Territories. The business connection however, does not now exist, and Mr. Haultain took an active and prominent part in securing Mr. Mackenzie's defeat. MacLeod is his home district, and there his prestige and personality was as effective as his argument. But even with Premier Haultain against him the returns show that the seat was lost not on the demerits of the Government's policy so much as through over confidence and consequent lack of exertion on the part of the Government candidate and his supporters.

ALBERTA

The name Alberta, given to the new electoral district which comprises the southern portion of the former electoral and present postal district of Alberta is likely to be rather confusing. When the name Alberta is used a description will have to be attached to define whether the electoral or postal district is meant. While the three other electoral districts into which the former Alberta electoral district was divided were named after the principal towns in each, the like was not done in the case of the most southerly district. In view of the then approaching elections it was thought inadvisable to arouse jealousy between the several important towns of the district by calling it after any one of them. Now that the elections are over that reason does not exist and the inconvenience of the mixture of names between the electoral and postal district might very well be remedied by changing the name of the electoral district to that by which it has always been known since its first formation, that is MacLeod. That name is intimately associated with the history of the early district, and on that account, if on no other, it would be a gracious act to perpetuate the name as covering a wider range than when applied only to the town.

POLLS IN LOCAL ELECTORAL DISTRICT

The polling places at the Federal election which are within the Edmonton electoral district are: Meowasin, White Horse Lake, Oberon, Glory Hills, Rosenthal, Warden, Stony Plain Centre, Spruce Grove, North View, Splon, Huron, St. Leon, Turnip Lake, Belmont, Poplar Lake, Namsa, Excelsior, Bon Accord, Sunnyvale, Horse Hills, Lamoureux, Creuzot, Sturgeon, Vermilion, Sturgeon Valley, Deep Creek, Halfway Lake, Athabasca Landing, Edmonton 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th—thirty-six in all. A total of 2,391 votes were polled, of which 1,363 were in town, and 1,027 at polls outside of town. If spoiled ballots were reckoned the total vote cast would surely be 2,400. The vote of the Edmonton local electoral district will be somewhat larger than that cast at the polls named, as the north line between the Edmonton and St. Albert districts, takes part of the local division of St. Emile, into the Bon Accord division of Edmonton. In other respects the polling divisions given are within the bounds of the Edmonton electoral district.

The boundaries of the Edmonton electoral district are as follows:—On the south and east of the Saskatchewan river from the mountains on the west to the point where the line between ranges 19 and 20 crosses the river, thence north along that line to the northern boundary of Alberta on the north and west the centre line of township 53 from the mountains eastward until the south west corner of the river settlement of St. Albert is reached; thence along the south-easterly boundary of that settlement to the point where that boundary touches the line between ranges 24 and 25, thence north along that line to the northern boundary of Alberta.

The whole of ranges 20, 21, 22, 23 and 24 north of the Saskatchewan river are included in the district, also the south half of township 53 and the townships further south to the Saskatchewan river, from range 23 westward to the mountains, as well as that part of the south half of 53 21 4, which lies southeast of the St. Albert settlement.

This places the road on the 14th base line west; the St. Albert road the several Sturgeon roads; the Athabasca Landing road; and the north road to Fort Saskatchewan, and nearly to Victoria; in the Edmonton district.

Returning to Excelsior district in Northern Alberta he has purchased another farm and states that Northern Alberta, and the Excelsior district is good country for him.

THANKSGIVING ENTERTAINMENT

The Thanksgiving concert in the Baptist church last evening was very largely attended. Every available seat in the church was taken and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Rev. A. McDonald acted as chairman, and between the two parts of the programme gave a short and appropriate address. The programme was a particularly choice and pleasing one, all those taking part doing so very creditably. The following is the programme—
Bass solo, "Thanks be to thee," Mr. Casely.
Reading, "In Market's Garden," from "Bonds the Bony," Mr. Casely.
Solo, "Hosanna in Excelsis," Mr. Stutchbury.
Solo, "The Lord is King," Mr. Stutchbury.
Instrumental Duet, Mrs. and Miss Crawford.
Male Quartet, "Sweet and Low," Messrs. McLeod, Hall, Rasmussen, and Casely.
Recitation, "David's" and "The Bell of Shandon," Miss Bellamy.
Solo, "The Lord is King," Mr. Froude.
Trio, "Praise ye the Lord," Mrs. McLeod, and Messrs. McLeod, and Stutchbury.
Double quartette, "Sun of my Soul," by the members of the choir.

WALKER'S COMEDIANS

Walker's comedians, under the management of C. F. Walker, of Winnipeg, appeared in Robertson Hall Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and also gave a matinee yesterday afternoon. On Wednesday evening they presented "Brown's in Town," and last evening, "My Friend, From India." On both evenings the audiences were only fair-sized, but all present seemed to thoroughly enjoy the comedies. The company was much stronger in their Wednesday evening's play, "Brown's in Town" than in last night's play, "Brown's in Town" caused continuous laughter. The play was bright, witty, and irresistibly amusing. Earle Stirling, as Dick Preston, was the soul of the play, and kept the audience in an uproar. The characters all took their parts exceptionally well and there was plenty of vim and go to the play. A couple of specialties by Wm. Yale were heartily applauded.

Last evening, in "My Friend, From India," the players seemed to be at home, and with the exception of Stirling as Shaver, and Carpenter as Charlie Underholt, the play dragged a little at times. Till, the servant, took a difficult and ludicrous part very effectively. Wm. Yale as Bill Finnigan, a policeman, played a minor part to great advantage. Stirling as Augustus Koon Shaver, a barber, the victim of circumstances, left nothing to be desired as the man from India. His acting was especially bright and vivacious. Carpenter as Charlie Underholt, who was exasperated by the trend of circumstances was thoroughly enjoyed.

The company will probably be greeted with better houses on their return to Edmonton.

STURGEON

By a typographical error in a recent issue of the Bulletin a notice of the anniversary social of the Presbyterian church on Sunday, the 29th inst., was made to read that the minister of the church would take part in the programme. This should have read the Misses Webster of Edmonton.

COLLEGE OPENING

The formal opening of Alberta College takes place this evening. A large number of invitations have been issued. The reception will take place in the college building from 7.30 to 9.30 o'clock, and a programme will be given by the Methodist church choir, commencing at 9.30 o'clock.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MATTERS

Pittsburg, November 18.—At the second day's session of the general board of control of the Epworth League of the world, here it was decided to place the work now done by the cabinet in the hands of the committee. Among the officers chosen are president, Bishop J. F. Berry; vice-president, Rev. P. K. Ward; Platt, of Buffalo, N.Y.; in order to obtain an expression of local public opinion favorable to the international situation, it was decided at a meeting of prominent citizens to hold a meeting in Carnegie Hall on December 16.

Fatal Accident

The citizens of Wetaskiwin were shocked on Tuesday morning to learn that a man was found dead in the gutter at the corner of the Draper Hotel. Upon investigation it was found that the deceased was Nils Berg, who had been foreman for Anderson & Lindberg, railway contractors, and had just arrived in town Monday evening from the country with his employers. He had been drinking during the evening, but those who gave evidence at the inquest did not consider him intoxicated. He went to bed on the third story of the Draper Hotel at a reasonable hour, and was peacefully sleeping at one o'clock, when his employer, Mr. Anderson, retired in the same room. The next heard of the deceased was about 4.45 Tuesday morning when J. S. Robertson, the night constable, found him lying in the gutter. Upon investigation the constable discovered that the head was badly wounded, and that blood had profusely flowed from the "nose" in ears, a large pool being close to the body. The right side of the head from the eye to the ear was badly crushed, and the right ear was lacerated. Later it was found that the skull had been fractured and the left arm broken.

The jury, after carefully considering the evidence, brought in the verdict "That the deceased, Nils Berg, had met an accidental death caused by a woman on the head made from falling from the third-story window at the Draper Hotel, between the hours of 1 and 4.45 on the morning of Tuesday, November 15."

Underwear That Defies the Thermometer

Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear is made in special weight for Northwest winters. It's warm and heavy enough to defy the most severe cold that the west blizzards can bring. Wearing Stanfield's garments, you don't care how low the thermometer drops.

Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear

Is made of long, silky Nova Scotia wool—the best in the world for underwear. It's treated by our special process, that insures it being absolutely unshrinkable. It's knitted in all sizes to fit every figure. And being unshrinkable, it holds its easy, comfortable shape, no matter how often it is washed. Money back if it shrinks. Ask your dealer for Stanfield's.

The Canadian Northwest Homestead Regulations

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age to the extent of one quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY.—Entry may be made for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or, if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situated, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $16.00 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, reside upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent, may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler has obtained a patent for his homestead, or a certificate for the issue of such patent, countersigned in the manner prescribed by this Act, and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead. If the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clauses 2, 3, or 4, must or subdivide 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, and have besides 80 acres subtenanted.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd June, 1899.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the local agent, sub-agent, or Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

Information.—Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office, in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing land to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

JAMES A. SMART, Deputy Minister of the Interior, N.B.—In addition to Free Grant lands to which the regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

JAP TROOPS VICTORIOUS

HOLD OUTER PORT ARTHUR FORTS

Large Jap Armies Have Been Landed at New Chwang and Pisewo to Operate Against Russian Troops at Mukden. Russian Second Pacific Squadron.

London, November 17th.—It is reported that 30,000 Japanese troops have been landed at New Chwang and 20,000 at Pisewo and that a turning movement is expected on the Russian right.

Washington, D. C., November 17th.—United States Consul General Fowler to-day called the American State Department from Chefoo that the situation at Port Arthur was extremely critical. All the outer forts have fallen into the hands of the Japs. Berlin, November 17th.—It is confirmed from various quarters that the Japanese have double tracked the road from Lianyung to Liao Yang and that thirty trains run daily.

Moscow, November 17th.—Vice-Admiral Rozhitzky has just returned from Vladivostok. He was interviewed here to-day and said that recently constructed fortifications made the position stronger than ever.

He thinks the Pacific Squadron will be attacked in the Indian Ocean.

St. Petersburg, November 17th.—At the foreign office the Associated Press learns that there is absolutely no foundation for the alarming reports regarding the hitch in the Anglo-Russian convention which will be held in a few days. The report that Ambassador Benckendorff is to be recalled is false. Russia accepted the text of the convention but when translated from the English it was found that it made out that Russia was wholly to blame and had intentionally fired on the British ships. French was agreed upon as the language in which the negotiations were to be carried on and a new convention is being drawn out which will it is expected be accepted by both sides.

MINERS' STRIKE

Chattanooga, Tenn., November 16.—The miners of Cabin Creek district went on strike to-day. The cause of the disagreement was a notice posted that operators would ignore the union in regard to dismissing men. Union men leaving the field may culminate in an outbreak.

TRIED TO LOOT A BANK

Bellingham, Wash., November 17th.—At Blaine to-day a bold attempt was made to hold up the Bank of Blaine. The cashier, McIntyre, and the president, Gundlach found two men concealed in the closet. One made a dash for the door and the other held up the officials with revolvers but was captured before he could escape.

ACTION DISCONTINUED

New York, November 17th.—Judge Macomber to-day signed an order discontinuing the action against Henry Jones & Company of San Francisco in the now famous litigation of the miners against Charles G. Schwab and others. The order releasing the defendants from connection with the litigation was filed by consent of the complainants by the New York bar. The Jones & Company to-day ordered an advance of $2 a ton on the price of their product.
